

Air pollution is a global public health emergency

Air pollution is responsible for more deaths than other risk factors such as

Alcohol use

Physical inactivity

and these are the effects

50% of childhood pneumonia deaths are due to air pollution

Over 50% of household air pollution-related deaths globally occur in women and children

Exposure to polluted air contributes to asthma and heart disease www.unenvironment.org/